

INDIAN HILL
CHARTER REVIEW UPDATE
OCTOBER 30, 2019

This is an update to the October 2, 2019 Bulletin article regarding the Indian Hill Charter review.

- September 5, 2019 - A general overview of the charter changes was presented at the Community Forum. The recommended changes include both stylistic (formatting, grammar, categorizing) as well as substantive
- September 23, 2019 - Council held a first reading on the recommended Charter changes
- October 21, 2019 - A second reading was held, with a Public Hearing, at the Council meeting. No changes to the recommendations were made.
- November 18, 2019 - A third reading will be held, and a vote taken, at the Council meeting
- December 2019 – if approved by Council in November, recommended Charter changes sent to Hamilton County Board of Elections to be approved as a ballot issue
- January/February 2020 – letter sent to all residents which includes the recommended Charter changes and an Executive Summary
- March 17, 2020 - Recommended Charter changes included on election ballot for resident vote

For your reference, you may go to www.ihill.org and click “Charter Review” for the following information:

- An Executive Summary of the recommended Charter changes as of October 21, 2019
- A redline version of the substantive recommended Charter changes as of October 21, 2019
- A redline version of all the recommended Charter changes, including stylistic, as of October 21, 2019

If you have questions regarding the recommended changes or process, please contact Dina Minneci, City Manager, at dminneci@ihill.org or 513-561-6500. In addition, all residents are welcome to attend any and all Council meetings.